Boro Firemen Form Active Members Club

Harry Hollar Heads Group to Further Activities of Company

MEETS LAST FRIDAYS

An Active Members Club has been formed within the Narberth Fire Company for the purpose of promoting the interest of active volunteers and the interest of the community which the company serves.

President of the new organization is Harry Hollar, proprietor of the Narberth Printing Company. Other officers are: James Smyth, vice-president; Charles V. Noel, treasurer; and George B. Knapp, Jr., secretary.

By-laws have been adopted and the club will meet on the last Friday of each month.

In a letter Secretary Knapp states: "From time to time the value of the fire company has been seen outside of fighting fires. At various times the firemen have been called on to serve as special police and to collect funds for charitable purposes in the community, etc."

"The formation of this new club will further the scope of these activities and also present an opportunity for the purpose of purchasing billiard tables, the holding of social events and possibly for financing athletic teams."

Boro Playgrounds Try for Athletic Awards

Narberth Playground, in conjunction with the National Physical Achievement Standards Committee, has joined in the drive for a physically fit America. The purpose of the National Physical Achievement Standards is to promote the joy of achievement, the spirit of sportsmanship and the satisfaction that comes from healthful living throughout adolescence.

The age qualifications for the standards are: Primary certificate, 8-9; elementary certificate, 10-11; intermediate.

These certificates are awarded to those individuals that pass the standards. There are standards for both boys and girls.

Narberth Playground will make an endeavor to promote an interest among its boys and girls to obtain these certificates. This is the first year for the appearance of this work on the local playground.

PET SHOW IS A SUCCESS

Dogs were in dominant numbers among the pets presented at the playground for the pet show held last Friday. However, the cats were not to be outdone and this species copied one prize, that of the smallest pet. The cat was the pet of Billie Craemer. The other prize winners were Jim McKenzie, Marjorie Havlick, Peggy Hebsacha, Albert Nulty, Ellen Kervan, Ernest Jenkins, Dickie Lacy and Jane O'Connor.

Buses Roam in Borough As Work Causes Detours

Aronimink buses and their passengers are being subjected to various detours in Narberth these days, due to the resurfacing of borough roads. The normal route, Haverford avenue to Essex to Montgomery, will be resumed after the streets are ready. In the meantime, the buses have been forced to roam on Windsor, Narberth, Forest, West Haverford avenue beyond the bank, and Wynnwood road, depending on what roads are being worked on. The detours, according to borough authorities, will continue until county work aid funds enable the local workmen to hurry up the work.

The bright, new quiet buses, with motors in the rear, and the friendly drivers inherited from the Montgomery Bus Company, have made an excellent impression on Main Line residents, reflected in a business which Aronimink officials term highly satisfactory.

Narberth Cadet Assigned

Ralph N. Ross, son of Mrs. Florence D. Ross, of Montgomery avenue, Narberth, has been assigned to the First Company at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. He was sworn in as a cadet July 1.

Named Liquor Store Clerk

George G. Conley, of Narberth, has received an appointment as a State Liquor Store clerk at a salary of $1020.

Mrs. Roach Receives Four-Year Commission

Bala-Cynwyd Postoffice Likely in New Structure by November

BUILDING IS DELAYED

Mrs. F. Joseph Roach has received her four-year commission as postmistress of Bala-Cynwyd, effective August 1. She has been acting postmistress since her appointment, April 20, when her husband resigned. A resident of Lower Merion for 12 years, at Highland avenue, Bala, she is a graduate of Georgetown University and is a Democratic State Committeewoman.

Wayne D. Burnside continues as assistant postmaster.

Mrs. Roach and her force will move into Bala-Cynwyd's new post office some time in October, it is expected. Ninety days' notice has just been given, making the lease on the present building expire October 31.

The new building, across Montgomery pike from the present one, has been delayed beyond the original 250-day period assigned the contractors last October, whose bid was $37,836. Extensions were given due to labor trouble and severe winter weather. Further delay was occasioned recently when the wall between the building's driveway and King's Pharmacy was ordered rebuilt, because of imperfections. Further slight delay will result if the plastering on one inside wall is done over. It will probably be termed faulty by E. vonB. Perry, Treasury Department's vigilant construction engineer.

At Indian Mission

Schiller Avenue Blaze

About $25 damage was caused by a roof blaze at the home of Samuel Lowe, 9 Schiller avenue, Narberth, Sunday. The Narberth Fire Company extinguished the flames.

Narberth Man Awaits Word From Relatives In War-Torn Granada

It is more than a month since Senor Francisco Seco de Lucena, of 109 Chestnut avenue, Narberth, has heard from his family, who live in Granada, Spain, now held by the revolutionary forces.

His father, mother, a brother and a sister live in this city, which is the center of the provinces of Granada, Almeria and Malaga, last stronghold of the Moors prior to the formation of the Spanish kingdom, later the Spanish Empire and now the Spanish republic.

His father, Senor Luis Seco de Lucena, is editor of the daily paper, El Defensor De Granada, a Ph. D., and a member of the Spanish Academy of the Language. His brother, Luis, also

26 Rangers Climb Mt. Washington Peak; Boys Lose 2 of 3 Events

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of letters from Ranger Lodge at Cusco, Maine.)

Mountain climbs and intercamp competitions headed this week's program at Ranger Lodge. However, the usual run of activities and some unusual happenings also occurred.

On Wednesday, Head Councillor Bob Smith and his staff of mountain goats departed for the camping ground at the foot of historic Mount Washington. After spending a not so restful night, twenty-six rangers started on what turned out to be a very eventful and exciting climb. Forest rangers warned the party that ascent up the Tuckerman Ravine trail was dangerous and inadvisable because of strong winds and overhanging clouds. So, led by Bob Smith and Dana Cahoon, the intrepid band commenced to scale the difficult but interesting Lion's Head route. Despite the fact that Dave Alburger and Bud Nold had to stop and take pictures at every fifty paces, the climb was completed in very respectable time. Directly at the peak of the Lion's Head a strong wind and dense clouds greeted the wayfarers. Indifferent to the perverse elements, the sturdy band leaped deftly from cairn to cairn and, headed by Dan Kareher and Dave Sellers, achieved the summit house. Comforted by a welcome meal and a much-needed rest by an open fire, the downward trek began. All went well on the speedy descent except that Jack Townsend seemed to prefer the carriage road to the shorter Nelson Crag trail and walked six miles out of his way.

Camp Agawam furnished opposition for the rangers in the first intercamp competition of the season. The peanut baseball team lost a close slugfest to the Agawam youngsters, 16-13. Heavy slugging by Charlie Dykes, Howard McConnell, Harry Middleton and Rusty DeBurla went for nought, as even sparkling fielding by Bob Reed and Rabbit Narrigan could not stay the unleashed power of the foe. Crow Ludlow's junior tennis team fared little better. In three hard-fought matches the Rangerites

J. J. Skelton & Son Open Display Building

Automatic Heating Equipment Featured in New Showrooms

FULL SERVICE OFFERED

Work has been completed on the new office and display building of J. J. Skelton & Son, Bala avenue. It is now open for public inspection.

The brick building has modern interior decorations, with offices and showroom on the first floor, and a clubroom in the cellar showing what can be done with the cellar of any home with the installation of automatic heat.

Skeltons have recently been appointed agents for the Bethlehem-Doe Oil Burner, Iron Fireman Coal Stoker, Fitzgibbons Steel Boiler Company and Burnham Boiler Company products, and the Minneapolis Honeywell Regulator Company. This, in addition to the coal and oil business, will enable the firm to offer a complete heating service, maintaining its own service department.

The building rounds out a program under way for five years to develop into a complete fuel and automatic heating business. First step, taken in 1930, was the installation of a fuel oil plant. It was followed by silos for coal.

Workers Chief Bulwark for Republican Campaign

Lower Merion's and Narberth's Republican political campaign this fall again will stress the "personal contact" method, according to political leaders. There will be rallies, of course, but mainly the G. O. P. chiefs will rely on organization workers to see that a big vote is rolled up for the national, State and district ticket.

Handling the county finances will be W. Potter Wear, Lower Gwynedd, with Peter C. Hess, Lower Merion leader, as vice-chairman. Other aides are Morris Cheston, Cheltenham Township; Charles L. Custer, Pottstown; Wayne Herkness, Abington Township; and Joseph A. Ranck, Norristown.

Borough Sluggers In Great Comeback

Narberth Shows Old Time Pep in Downing Downingtown, 10-2

RUBINCAM, FOX STAR

BY JOHN MULLIGAN
Narberth faces a long grind in its quest for second-half honors of the Main Line League. A big disappointment to its followers when they finished in fourth place last half, Gene Davis' charges are determined that they will earn a place in the playoff series again this fall.

The management called a pep meeting last week and players were criticized for their lack of fight on the ball field. Following the rally a noticeable improvement was shown in the team's spirit. Then came a pleasing result when Narberth traveled to Downingtown for its opener last Saturday.

Great Start

Davis' defending champions walloped Ed Sheridan's gang by a 10-2 score, with Johnny Jackson making his 1936 league debut on the mound. It will be recollected how Narberth bowed to Downingtown when they tangled in the first-half opener on the same diamond.

Encouraged greatly by their success in the league, the Davismen returned to the home field on Sunday where they played Pitman, of New Jersey. Again the team revealed new power, shellacking the Jersey aggregation to the tune of 22-3.

These games at least showed that Narberth has improved its mental attitude. If Davis could get some real pitching it wouldn't be any surprise to see the townsmen meeting Brookline in the "Little World Series."

Looking over the results of other games last Saturday (no games were scheduled for Sunday) one gets the feeling that anything can happen. The three teams who finished one, two, three for the other race, were on the short end of their opening tilts. Most surprising of all was Brookline's defeat at the hands of Coatesville's cellar champs. Gladwyne yielded to Malvern and Berwyn fell before the might of West Phillies.

Narberth will take to the road again tomorrow. Davis and his deof the Lower Merion police, who gave his autobiography before fellow Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotarians on Tuesday.

Lieutenant Duke Tells of Navy Experiences

Police Official Gives Experiences Before Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary

ON FORCE TEN YEARS

New members of Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth's Rotary Club must give an account of themselves before the membership, and Tuesday at the Overbrook Golf Club it was the turn of Lieutenant Clarence A. Duke, of the Lower Merion police force.

Rotarians learned Lieutenant Duke was born in Colfax, Iowa, August 6, 1893, and joined the navy in 1909 after stuffing himself with bananas in order to make the minimum weight required for enlistment.

He saw service in the Pacific and in China, went 1800 miles on flat-bottomed boats up the Yangtze River to protect American missionaries.

At the start of the World War he made an eighty-seven-day trip on a destroyer from the Philippines to the Mediterranean. There he was assigned to convoy and tender work. At one time a depth bomb dropped prematurely, nearly blowing the ship on which he was stationed out of the water.

He was honorably discharged from the United States Navy in 1925 and became a member of the Lower Merion force in March, 1926, being promoted through the ranks to lieutenant.

"Martha" and Thibault Head Robin Hood Dell Program

Friedrich von Plotow's melodious opera, "Martha," will be one of the highlights of next week's programs which the Men of the Philadelphia Orchestra offer to music lovers at Robin Hood Dell in Fairmount Park.

It will be presented in English on Monday and Tuesday nights, with Alexander Smallens conducting. Another important musical feature of the week will be the appearance on Saturday night of Conrad Thibault, the popular American baritone, as soloist, and Willem van Hoogstraten, conductor of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, as guest conductor. Mr. Thibault will sing two groups of songs.

Mr. von Hoogstraten also will be guest conductor at the concert on Sunday, August 2, with a program of exceptional merit, including Brahms' fourth symphony.

On Thursday night, Jose Iturbi, the Spanish composer and pianist and principal conductor at the Dell this season, will offer the third highlight of the week in the form of an all-Spanish program.

Jose Echaniz, brilliant Cuban pianist, who has appeared on four occasions as soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra and who is well known to local music circles, will appear as soloist. The program will include De Falla's "El Amor Brujo" ("Love, the Magician") with Margaret Harshaw, Narberth, contralto, singing the two voice parts.

Pastor Going Abroad

The Rev. Robert E. Keighton, pastor of the Baptist Church of the Evangel, Narberth, will sail next week to spend a month in Stratford-on-Avon, England. Charles R. Leech will act as summer minister.

School Board Fills 2 Teaching Vacancies

Stanley Smith and Nellie R. Henry Elected at July Meeting

FORMER BAND LEADER

Vacancies in the Narberth School were filled at the Board of Education's July meeting with the election of two teachers.

Stanley Smith, for eleven years a teacher in the Parryville School of English, Latin and history in grades 6, 7 and 8, will teach English, Latin and Literature here. Mr. Smith attended East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, graduated from Muhlenberg College as a Ph. B., and is working for his master's degree at New York University. At Parryville Mr. Smith has been teaching principal for eight years, was manager and conductor of the school's band, and a member of the town band. With his wife and one small child he will move to Narberth in September.

Miss Nellie R. Henry, instructor for 15 years at Blairsville, a graduate of Indiana State Teachers College, and now studying for her degree at the University of Southern California, will teach mathematics, grades 4 to 6, taking the place of the late Miss Sara E. Hoak.

The third new member of the faculty, who was elected in June, is Miss Helen Force, graduate of Elizabethan College, who comes here from the New Royalton Schools.

The board also arranged for school insurance and awarded the school supplies contract to the Milton Bradley Company. A special meeting will be called soon to award the contract for transportation of borough students to Lower Merion junior and senior high schools.

Principal Gives Annual Report to Directors

96 Per Cent of All Narberth Pupils Promoted During 1935-36

LAZINESS FAILED FIVE

Ninety-six per cent of pupils in the Narberth public school last term were promoted, it was brought out by Principal W. J. Drennen in his annual report to the Narberth School Board at the latter's July meeting. This was 1.3 per cent higher than the previous year.

Of eighteen who failed the causes given were: Absence, 1; transfers from other districts, 7; work too difficult, 5; laziness, 5.

Twenty-eight pupils are receiving individual help at the summer sessions, while forty are being given additional work, with twenty-three taking advanced work.

More complete integration of certain study groups will be made this coming year, Mr. Drennen said. These groups include history and geography, art, music and social studies; spelling to be taught with each subject; the "stepping up" of arithmetic.

Among the new activities listed for the past year were trips to the Commercial and University of Pennsylvania Museums, showing of motion pictures covering geography, history and industry, and the circulating picture club, organized to stimulate interest in and appreciation of works of art.

Around Our Town

A sport for Narberth residents spending the summer at home, yet one which is quite interesting, is playing "hide-and-seek" with the new buses. We recommend this for driving cares away, although some people claim it adds to them.

During the recent excavations in certain streets of our fair borough, the continual opening and closing of various passageways have raised the odds as high as 5 to 1 as to where the buses will appear. If you are not the gambling kind, we suggest that you stick to the simple "hide-and-seek" and run from street trying to find same bus. As a forewarning, though, you will probably find it helpful not to be in a hurry to get anywhere when you start out. Heaven only knows when you'll reach your destination.

A great many of the women of Narberth have not found it necessary to resort to our suggestions to amuse themselves. (The fair sex always was resourceful.) They have taken to gardening, or rather they have kept on with their gardening, for it is not an innovation. Judging from some of the lovely results, it is easy to see their time is profitably spent. Clusters of cosmos, of cornflowers, marigolds and other gaily colored flora grace many a front and back yard. And especially early this summer the flora have had an extra-good chance for survival since the quarantine kept the fauna otherwise occupied.

When the rosy summer evening settles with quiet dignity upon the countryside, Mrs. Housewife begins at once to get restless. Out into the garden she slips with her little kneeling cushion and basket. Armed with a trowel and clippers, she spends many a happy hour turning up the warm, fresh earth, transplanting, weeding, and gathering the fragrant blossoms.

Ingenuous effects are gained by arranging the plants so that when the early blooming flowers are gone, their later brethren fill in the gaps, making a continuous, though constantly changing pattern. Mrs. Jay G. Miller, like many others, does not belong to a garden club, or go about the matter ultra-scientifically, yet her neighbors feel the thriving and colorful garden behind her home on Windsor avenue is one of the loveliest. It certainly provides her, as well as any woman who tries this gardening business, a great deal of enjoyment, both in the finished product and in the creator's thrill that accompanies the bringing of it into being.

Boy Scout Notes

A Main Line district swimming meet will be held Thursday evening, July 30, at 6:30 P. M., at the residence of D. E. Scherbinin, Lafayette road, Villanova. All registered scouts of the district are eligible.

There will be events for both swimmers and non-swimmers. Parents and friends are invited. The program is in charge of the Main Line District Activities Committee, W. J. Drennon, chairman; E. F. Snyder, Walter Brown and Howard Spiering.

Scouts of Valley Forge Council may well be proud of Camp Delmont, summer headquarters for Delaware and Montgomery Counties located in Summerville on beautiful Unami Creek. A trip to Delmont is the high spot in the scout's year.

The health of the boys is carefully watched by Dr. Willis Gerhart, who has maintained an excellent record at the Edward Carlson Memorial Cabin, the camp hospital.

Every precaution is taken to insure pure water both for swimming and camp uses. A chlorinator such as is found in public water systems has been installed in the camp water supply. Water in the swimming pools is tested at least once a week to make certain of no contamination.

The trend at Camp Delmont is towards less regimentation with better discipline.

Warden Optimistic Upon County Game Situation

Montgomery County's game situation is looking upward, according to a report made Monday night at the quarterly meeting of the Sportsmen's Federation at Schwenkville.

Ambrose (Pete) Gearhart, district game warden, told the sportsmen that since last spring, 661 cock birds, 237 hen pheasants, 45 Reeve pheasants and 13 Mongolian pheasants had been released in Montgomery County.

There were also 50 Bob white quail, 967 rabbits, 60 gray squirrel, 25 mallard ducks and 5 raccoons liberated, according to the Souderton official.

Warden Gearhart pleaded with sportsmen throughout the county to start building winter shelters for the game and birds now.

A total of $2,212 was paid by the State to killers of vermin in Montgomery County last year, Mr. Gearhart said.

The game warden also made a plea to motorists to exercise more care on the road.

Egyptian $400 Bank Night Prize Won By Bryn Mawr Man Enrolled 3 Weeks

Four hundred dollars was won by William A. Hayden, Bryn Mawr contractor, at the Egyptian Theatre's Bank Night last Thursday. The award was judged by Dr. A. E. Clattenburg, of St. John's Church, Lower Merion; and L. Stanley King, Cynwyd druggist and Rotary and Bala-Cynwyd Building Association leader.

While the Egyptian's Bank Night has been in existence for about a year, Mr. Hayden registered for it only three weeks prior to winning—on June 25—thus gaining the prize coveted by hundreds of persons for a year of Thursdays.

The Bank Night, which takes place at 9 P. M. every Thursday, consists of an award to someone who has registered in the Bank Night Book in the Cynwyd theatre's lobby. If that person is not in the audience when his or her name is announced, the award is deferred until the following week.

Manager Joseph Conway has offered for Thursday of this week a Jack Pot of $100, which is to be increased by $25 each week if the winner is not found.

Last night's judges were expected to be Dr. Richard C. Mears, Cynwyd dentist and Rotarian; and Charles S. Shinn, last year's Neighborhood Club president and head of the Bala-Cynwyd Community Choral and the Bala-Cynwyd and Lower Merion Library Associations.

will be the matrons of honor and only attendants.

Mr. Miffin Coulter Bunting will act as best man for his brother and the ushers will include, Mr. Holbrook Miller Bunting, another brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. Riley H. Foote, brother-in-law of the bride.

There will be no reception.

Mrs. Kenneth Braneats, of Overbrook, entertained at a small bridge party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Swain.

SPORTLETS-

Cynwyd's Union Fire Association team and the Narberth Boys' Club won their opening battles in the second half of the Twilight League, the former beating Ardmore Warriors, 3-1, while the boys took over St. Luke's, 7-5.

Cynwyd's firemen made it two in a row Tuesday night by handing St. Luke's nine a 3-1 setback.

Villanova's new football coach, Maurice J. "Clipper" Smith this week took over the duties relinquished by Harry Stuhldreher, now Wisconsin's grid mentor. Smith, a former Notre Dame star, has coached western college teams since 1921.

In a close and drawn-out match last Friday, Sue Peterson, of the Cynwyd Club, defeated Barbara Strohbar, pride of Lower Merion High, who represented Merion Cricket Club, to win the second annual Main Line women's tennis championship at Ardmore. Scores: 7-5, 5-7, 7-5.

Next day for the men's title Bill Nassau, Philadelphia Central High, won in four sets, 7-5, 6-0, 1-6, 6-4, from Foster Hammonds, Merion Cricket Club.

Cynwyd Juniors and Ardmore Cubs played a 6-6 tie game in the junior league Monday night. Cynwyd's Griffith allowed but four hits, three of them garnered by Ardmore's Heslip including two two-baggers, but he also allowed six walks. His teammates made eight hits.

terminated crew are scheduled to invade Coatesville. No doubt they have learned a lesson from Brookline's disastrous debut up there. On Sunday Narberth meets an old rival, Berwyn on the borough community field.

Jackson in Debut

Jackson got credit for the win at Downingtown, but pitched only five innings. He held a 4-2 lead when he retired because of an upset stomach. Bill Reynolds went in to finish after Narberth collected five runs in its sixth to turn it into a rout.

Harry Fox and Joel Rubineam were the hitting stars for Narberth. Fox had a triple and two singles, while Rubineam poled a three-bagger and had a bingle besides.

Rubineam and Fox again played a prominent part in Sunday's win. Leading an 18-hit batting spree, Rubineam knocked in seven runs with a homer and three singles. Fox accounted for five markers with his two three-baggers and a single. Bi Boyer, George Gazella and Tann Ralston all collected a trio of safes for the Main Liners.

Cynwyd Man, Alleged Hit-Run Driver, Granted Continuance

Frederick G. Schadrack, 31, police man, Penarth road, Bala-Cynwyd who is charged with suspicion of driving while under the influence of liquor and of failure to render assistance after striking John ("Pork") Scott Lower Merion patrolman, with his automobile, has been granted a continuance of his case until August 10 by Magistrate C. Howard Meredith.

Schadrack, who was allowed to sign his own bail bond of $1000, previously had his case continued from July 7 to July 20.

Scott formerly was a Lower Merion football star.

could gain but one decision. Freddie Kohloss disposed of his opponent, but Joe Clausen and Bud Nold dropped close battles. The shining light of the afternoon was the rifle team. Led by Sharpshooting Don Rheasa and well backed up by Sib Lee, Ross Collins, John Bartle and Bob Paine, our boys ran roughshod over the lads from Crescent Lake.

The twilight softball league is in full swing. Six teams, each led by a councilor comprise the circuit. Up to date the teams of Pop Fowler and Bill Miller are leading the race. Ralph Moss, Ted Collins and Dick Blue have aided materially for the director's aggregation, while Bob Brendlinger, Jimmy Dykes and Jack Freeman have kept Uncle Bill's club on top.

The weekly inspection race proved to be an upset, as Cabin 9 came from last place to first place. Such efficient broomwielders as Paul Monahan, Winice Conner, Chic Dawson, John Heymann and Frank Dunnigan worked tirelessly under the direction of Bob Wood to keep their cabin spotless. "We dusted our work and swept into first place," said Junior Councilor Jim Fitzpatrick.

Our sailing canoe made its appearance this week and was soon seen cutting across the wind-swept waters of Pleasant Lake. Bill Brendlinger and Dick Freeman have fast learned the knack of the tillers. Boating and canoeing still rank among the favorite pastimes. Rhys Thomas and Bill Boardman are the best small paddlers in camp, while the champions of kayak races are Billy Smith and Billy Ryan.

The weekly campfire was held on Saturday night. Featured was the hillbilly band composed of Rolly Young, Bob Warwick, Ed Peterson, Hank Ludlow, Charlie Herbert and Dave Alburger. Aldy Ludlow's trumpeting and Pop Fowler's well-known story telling ability were enjoyed by the audience, which included several visiting parents.
